Lunch at the “Relais de la Ronde”, Vivy/Saumur followed by a visit to the workshops and museum of

CBG MIGNOT
route de Bourgueil 49390 La Breille les Pins

Founded in Paris in 1825 and established in Anjou since 1994, CBG Mignot has manufactured lead soldiers for almost two hundred years. It is the only surviving workshop in France producing lead figurines today. The workshop museum holds over 12,000 figures. Each one is 6cm high and is unique due to the craftsmanship and meticulous hand painting involved. CBG Mignot figures are famous for their historic detail and today are collected the world over.

Edouard Pemzec, a collector of antique toys, in particular the lead soldiers produced by CBG Mignot, purchased the business in 1994 and opened the workshop in Breille les Pins. It is currently run by his son, Loïc Pemzec, who is as passionate as his father about these small figurines.
